“ I have known Angie for so many years. She was always such a pleasure. Always happy and always smiling. She was the sweetest person and I will miss dearly. Rest in peace Angie and make sure you keep a watchful eye over all your favorite people.

“ As a friend of Angie's for over 40 years to say she was a unique person is an understatement. She left an impression on everyone she met, she was unforgettable. Her smile. Her laugh. She will be remembered with warm thoughts. Angie wherever you are give me a call. ❤️ Karen

“ To Debbie and Linda and all the siblings, Cousin Ray sends his love. Angie may be gone from this world but her wonderful memory lives on. Many family visits thru the years are now recalled on Clybourn Ave. and Lowell and Melvina bungalos and all the people who shared our lives are sweet memories.

“ We always enjoyed sleep-overs as kids. We watched all the important shows like Lawrence Welk. We rode the bus to high school at Kelvyn Park. It's been ages since we last hung out. Wish we could have connected before you traveled on. We'll meet again somewhere in the universe.

So sorry for the loss of your loving sister. May she find peace and comfort in God's arms.

Love Always,
Toni
