“ With love and sympathy to family and friends of Tony Corona. I have a very special memory of him from about 50 years ago. Tony was my sister's (Sue Conklin) friend. As a young teen, I was walking home on the gravel shoulder of a busy road - Rand Road, I believe. Tony recognized me and gave me a lift. He pulled over and got out of the car to introduce himself and offer me a ride home. I am wondering how many people this good man touched with his kindness during his life time. May you rest in peace, Tony, and help us all from the other side. God bless you and your family and friends. -Debbie Colia
