“ When I initially met Marta, I was in grammar school. Jim brought her to visit his grandmother, mother, and his uncle, my Father. Marta was Beautiful, poised, intelligent and had good manners. Marta was a woman to emulate. The few times I was asked to babysit Kris when I was a teenager, I was so impressed with her home and choice of well appointed furniture designs. Marta was a classy lady and I always enjoyed being around her. I just learned of Marta’s passing, and it brought back such fond memories of her, Jim, and her daughters. As I hear so many times, “we are not made to remain here, we are born to reach Heaven.” Looking forward to seeing you again, Marta! Love & Peace in the Hand’s of God, Janet Barone
